

Draw a bar at the end of the graph inside the flap book to represent the highest point of land in the country you are studying. Write in the name of the highest point and where it is found in parenthesis. Glue the rectangle with the mountain and the words "highest point" onto the cover of your flap book. Place the flapbook onto your notebook page or lapbook.