

Cut out the flaps and staple them together at the top. The dotted line indicates a fold, where you can flip each flap up. Color in the temperatures for each season for the country you are studying. Glue the bottom flap to your notebook page or lapbook.